Dear Academy Stakeholders,

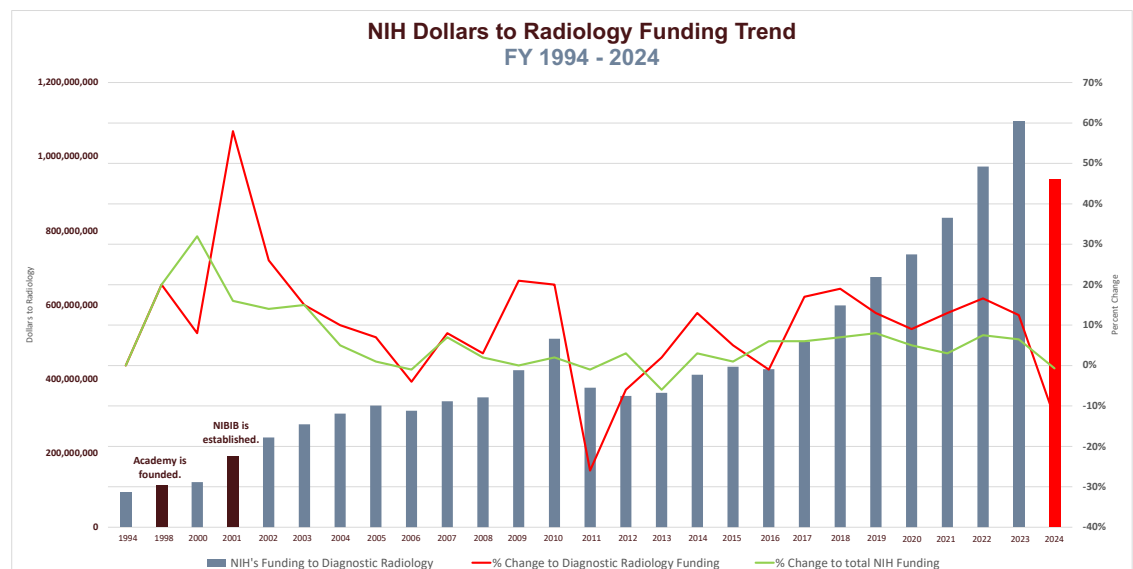

We are pleased to present the collation of data for the Academy's FY24 NIH Data Collection Project. The Academy leverages this information as a strong advocacy tool on behalf of our community. In addition, we appreciate that many members use this data for benchmarking their programs and advocating for their own departments.

This year's data collection indicated a decrease of -12.8% in FY24 from FY23, ($937,834,227 vs. $1,075,752,584).

TOTALS FOR ENTIRE DATA COLLECTION - FY24

CONTACT PI on GRANT to PRIMARY	$652,643,274
MPI on GRANT with AWARD to PRIMARY ORG	$156,706,801
CONTACT PI on GRANT with AWARD to OTHER ORG	$23,907,460
MPI on GRANT with AWARD to OTHER ORG	$104,576,691
TOTAL WITHOUT ECOG-ACRIN	$908,464,147
ECOG-ACRIN FUNDING	$29,370,080
GRAND TOTAL	$937,834,227

The chart below illustrates the funding trend in comparison to prior years, in addition to a unique cross comparison with NIH's overall funding since this project's inception.

This year 70% of our stakeholders self-reported their own data. We would like to thank each of the 43 academic radiology departments who took the time to collect and submit on behalf of their institution.

Should you have any questions regarding this year's project, please contact the Academy staff Olivia Nelson, onelson@acadrad.org. For further information and guidelines for this project, click here.

Thank you all again for your commitment to this annual effort and we look forward to engaging you in our FY25 collection next fall.

Regards,

Pamela Woodard, MD
