Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Katherine Andriole, PhD
Academy Board Member

Professor & Director of Research Strategy
Mass General Hospital & Brigham Women's Hospital Center for Clinical Data Science Imaging Informatics; image processing, analysis and visualization; data science and machine learning

kandriole@bwh.harvard.edu

Sameer Antani

Staff Scientist
National Institutes of Health
Biomedical image informatics, automatic medical image interpretation, machine learning

santani@mail.nih.gov

Corey Arnold, PhD

Associate Professor
UCLA
Developing an integrated diagnostic platform for radiology and pathology

cwarnold@ucla.edu

Jacqueline Bello, MD, FACR

ASNR President
ASNR
Prof. Clinical Radiology & Neurosurgery, Albert Einstein College of Medicine & Montefiore Medical Center, NY

jbello@montefiore.org

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Denis Bergeron, PhD

Research Chemist
NIST
Measurement standards for activity (Bq); quantitative molecular imaging.

Denis.bergeron@nist.gov

Megan Blackwell, PhD

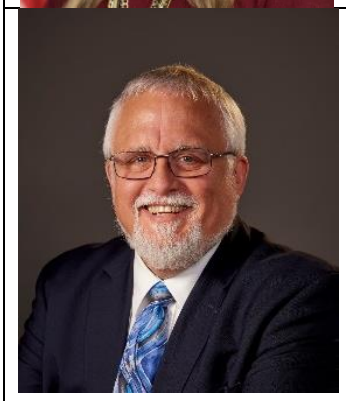
Technical Staff
MIT Lincoln Laboratory
Medical imaging, prototyping systems

blackwell@ll.mit.edu

Sara Brenner, MD, MPH

Senior Policy Advisor
White House Office of Science & Technology Policy
Preventive Medicine, Nanomedicine, OEHS, Biotech, Nanoscale Imaging, Nanomaterial Characterization

Sara.a.brenner@ostp.eop.gov



Mark Bronkalla, MBA

Workshop Facilitator

Sr. Offering Manager
IBM Watson Health Imaging
Extensive PACS experience and currently working on WHI cognitive platforms which are applicable

mark.bronkalla@us.ibm.com

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Michael Brown, MBA
Academy CIBR Industry Partner

Program Manager
General Electric
Program Manager for Government Relations Healthcare R&D at General Electric Global Research

michael.brownt@ge.com

Casey Cappelletti
Academy Staff

Patient Outreach Coordinator & Government Affairs Assistant
The Academy for Radiology & Biomedical Imaging Research

ccappelletti@acadrad.org

Cheryl Carey, MBA, CAE

Executive Director
Society for Imaging Informatics in Medicine
SIIM advances enterprise imaging through education, research and innovation in imaging informatics.

ccarey@siim.org

Ruth Carlos, MD
Academy Executive Committee

Professor of Radiology Assistant Chair of Clinical Research University of Michigan
Professor of Radiology, Assistant Chaqir of Clinical Research

rcarlos@med.umich.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Richard Cavanagh, PhD

Director of Special Programs
NIST
Co-chair of the workshop where perspectives on opportunities in Medical Imaging were explored.

Richard.cavanagh@nist.gov

Michael Cheetham

Fogarty International Center
National Institutes of Health
Editor of the Interagencey Working Group on Medical Imaging (IWGMI) Roadmap report

michael.cheetham@nih.gov

Renee Cruea, MPA
Academy Staff

Executive Director
The Academy for Radiology & Biomedical Imaging Research

Rcruea@acadrad.org

Timothy Dasey, PhD

Group Leader
MIT Lincoln Laboratory
Lead various software system, machine learning, and human-machine

timd@LL.mit.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Zara Day

Senior Policy Advisor
CRD Associates
Government Affairs Consultant for the Academy

zday@dc-crd.com

Lyle Dennis

Partner
CRD Associates
Government Affairs Consultant for the Academy

ldennis@dc-crd.com

Matt Dennis

Senior Vice President
CRD Associates
Consultant for the Academy

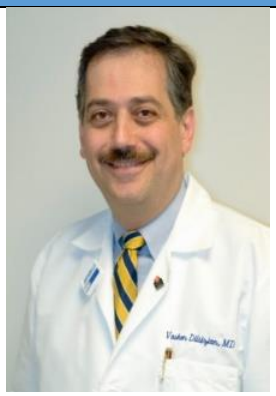
mdennis@dc-crd.com

Ward Digby, PhD

Product Owner - Integrated Diagnostics
Siemens
Working on integrated decision support solutions to bring data together from imaging, IVD, pathology

ward.digby@siemens.com

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018



Vasken Dilsizian, MD
Workshop Facilitator

Vice President-Elect
SNMMI
Professor of Diagnostic Radiology and Nuclear Medicine: University of Maryland School of Medicine

vdilsinzian@umm.edu

George Dixon, RN, MSIS

Principal Business Analysst/Solution Management
Allscripts
Design / Product Management in Interoperability Solutions Group, active in HL7 standards workgroups.

George.dixon@allscripts.com

Kevyan Farahani, PhD

Program Director
NIH/National Cancer Institute
Imaged Guided Intervention Branch

Farahank@mail.nih.gov

Michael Feldman, MD, PhD

Vice Chair Pathology
University of Pennsylvania
Pathology informatics, digital pathology, integration of path and rads data

feldmanm@mail.med.upenn.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Christopher Filippi, MD

Vice Chair of Biomedical Imaging and Translational Science
Lenox Hill Hospital
Specialize in the translation of advanced quantitative MR and AI/machine learning into routine clinical practice

sairaallapeikko@gmail.com

Les Folio, DO, MPH

Workshop Facilitator

Director, Clinical Image Processing Service
NIH
Director of image processing – I manage all image quantification in cancer trials.

les.folio@nih.gov

David Foos

CTO & Senior Director of R&D
Carestream Health
Medical image processing, x-ray imaging physics, and integrated systems development

david.foos@carestream.com

Brian Garra, MD

Medical Officer
FDA
Ultrasound imaging and signal processing, Ultrasound Elasticity Imaging, Quantitative Ultrasound brian.garra@fda.hhs.gov

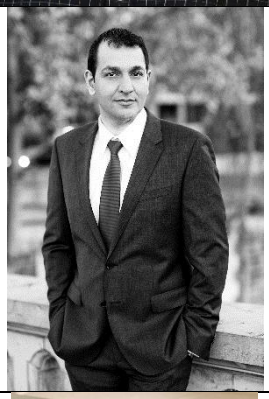
Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Michael Garris

Senior Scientist
NIST
Expertise in image, pattern recognition, testing, and standards.

Michael.garris@nist.gov



Amanjit Gill, MD

Quality Improvement Officer
Cleveland Clinic
Artificial intelligence to improve Radiology quality. Cross disciplinary big data to drive outcomes

gilla4@ccf.org

Robert Gropler

Professor of Radiology, Medicine, and BME Senior Vice-Chair Radiological Sciences
Washington University of Medicine Division of Nuclear Medicine Develop and apply PET molecular imaging tools for CV applications

groplerr@mir.wustl.edu

John Haller, PhD

Academy Industry CIBR Partner

Clinical Research Program Manager
Canon Medical Research USA, Inc.
Imaging Science, Clinical research, Government programs, Industry-academic partnerships

jhaller@yahoo.com

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Douglas Hartman, MD

Associate Professor of Pathology
University of Pittsburgh Medical Center
Associate Director of Pathology Informatics and a practicing gastrointestinal pathologist.

hartmandj@upmc.edu

John Hazle, PhD

Chairman, Department of Imaging Physics
Univ of Texas MD Anderson Cancer Center
Magnetic resonance, pre-clinical imaging and image-guided therapy, representing AAPM Science Council

jhazle@mdanderson.org

Jill Heemskerk, PhD

Acting Director
NIH/NIBIB

Alexander Kagen, MD

Site Chair
Mount Sinai West & ST. Luke's
AI researcher, leader of 2 large hospitals in Manhattan, and connected with Silicon Valley tech alexander.kagen@mountsinai.org

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Krishna Kandarpa, MD, PhD

Director, of Research Sciences & Strategic Directions
NIH/NIBIB

Kathryn Keenan, PhD

Biomedical Engineer
NIST
NIST project leader for quantitative MRI

kathryn.keenan@nist.gov

Brad Keller

Director, Clinical Research
Hologic, Inc.
Imaging science, statistics, cancer epidemiology, and clinical efficacy/effectiveness research.

Brad.keller@hologic.com

Elizabeth Krupinski, PhD
Academy Board Member/Workshop Facilitator

Professor & Vice Chair for Research
Emory University
Medical image perception, decision making, human factors, integration of technology.

ekrupin@emory.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Eleni Liapi, MD, ScM

Assistant Professor of Radiology and Oncology
Johns Hopkins University
Research in image-guided innovation and PROs.

eliapi2@jhmi.edu

Thomas Liu, PhD

Professor
UC San Diego
Quality Assurance, Calibration, Processing, and Analysis of Neuroimaging Research Data

ttliu@ucsd.edu

Laurie Loevner, MD

ASNR Past President
ASNR
Prof. of Radiology, Director of Head & Neck Imaging at Perelman School of Medicine, Univ. of Penn.

laurieloevner@aol.com

David MacCutcheon

Academy CIBR Industry Partner

VP of Product Management
TeraRecon
Standards and technology domain interface expertise of 25 years; and is a user interface and workflow expert for leading solutions

davem@terarecon.com

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Tina Manoharan, PhD

Innovative Program Lead
Siemens Healthineers
"Integrated Decision Support" for precision medicine.

tina.manoharan@siemens-healthineers.com

Rich Mather, PhD
Academy CIBR Industry Partner/Workshop Facilitator

President
Canon Medical Research USA
Expertise in medical imaging, specifically CT and MR physics

rmather@mru.medical.canon

Gordon McLennan, MD
Academy Board Member

Professor
Society of Interventional Radiology Academy Board Representing SIR Research related to image processing/informatics in IR

gmclenna@me.com

Carolyn Meltzer, MD
Academy Executive Committee

Prof/Chair of Radiology; Assoc Dean for Research Academy/Emory University

cmeltze@emory.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Elizabeth Mirowski, PhD
Academy CIBR Industry Partner

CEO QalibreMD, Inc.
QalibreMD produces imaging standards for developing fast MRI protocols and imaging biomarkers.

emirowski@Qalibre-MD.com

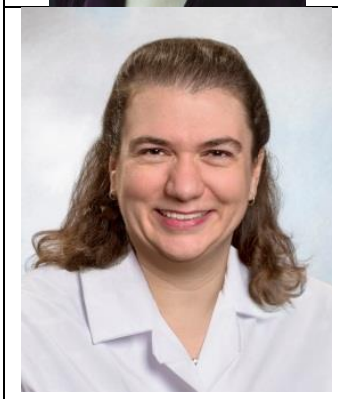
Stephen Murray, PhD

Software Developer
Epic
Epic Software Systems, Radiology Information System product.

Martha Nolan
Academy Staff

Senior Director of Government and Strategic Affairs
The Academy for Radiology & Biomedical Imaging Research

mnolan@acadrad.org



Stacy O'Connor, MD, MPH

Assistant Professor
MCW
Abdominal radiologist and informatician with experience in communication and workflow optimization soconnor@mcw.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

James Pekar, PhD

Professor of Radiology
Johns Hopkins University
Acquisition & analysis of MRI data reporting on brain physiology & function.

pekar@jhu.edu

Homer Pien, MS, PhD
Academy CIBR Industry Partner

SVP and Chief Scientific Officer Diagnosis and Treatment
Philips
Imaging

homer.pien@philips.com

Etta Pisano, MD
Academy Board Member

Chief Science Officer
American College of Radiology
Breast Imaging Research

etpisano@gmail.com

Luciano Prevedello, MD, MPH

Chief, Medical Imaging Informatics
OSU Wexner Medical Center
Division Chief of Imaging Informatics and Neuro Radiologist currently highly involved in AI

luciano.prevedello@osumc.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Yuechen Qian, PhD

Academy CIBR Industry Partner

Director
Philips Research North America
Medical Imaging, Radiology Informatics, Quality Assurance, Decision Support, Artificial Intelligence

yuechen.qian@philips.com

Ashish Raj, PhD

University of California, San Francisco (UCSF)

Lenny Reznik, BS, MBA

Academy CIBR Industry Partner

VP, IT Business Unit
Agfa HealthCare
Marketing, Strategic management, Business Development, Product Management, Sales support, healthcare IT, informatics, medical imaging

Andrew Robinson, PhD

Head of Nuclear Medicine Metrology
National Physical Laboratory, UK
Development of traceability and standards for quantitative nuclear medicine imaging. MRT dosimetry andrew.robinson@npl.co.uk

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Don Rosen, MD
Academy Board Member

Chief Research Officer
ACR
Diagnostic radiologist and the Chief Research Officer at the American College of Radiology.

drosen@acr.org

Max Rosen, MD, MPH

Chair of Radiology
UMass Medical School
Professor and Chair of Radiology : UMass Medical School and UMass Memorial

Steven Rothenberg, MD

Chief Medical Officer
EnvoyAI
Founder and chief medical officer of EnvoyAI, a marketplace for machine learning algorithms.

steven@envoyai.com

Pina Sanelli, MD, MPH, FACR

President-Elect
ASNR
Prof. of Radiology at Northwell Health, NY; adjunct Prof. of Radiology at Weill Cornell Med. Col.

psanelli@northwell.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Mitchell Schnall, PD, PhD
Academy Executive Committee/ Workshop Facilitator

Chair of Radiology
Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania International leader in translational biomedical and imaging research.

mitchell.schnall@uphs.upenn.edu

Behrouz Shabestari, PhD

Program Director, Division of Applied Science & Technolgy
NIH/NIBIB

behrouz.shabestari@nih.gov

Eliot Siegel, MD
Workshop Facilitator

Professor
Department of Veterans Affairs
Professor of Radiology with expertise in Nuclear Medicine/Cardiology and machine learning/AI

esiegel@umaryland.edu

Ben Slater, BS

Director, Analytics Solutions
Vital Images, Inc.
Product strategy and development of diagnostic cockpits at Vital/Canon Medical bslater@vitalimages.com

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Andrew Smith, MD, PhD

Vice Chair of Clinical Research
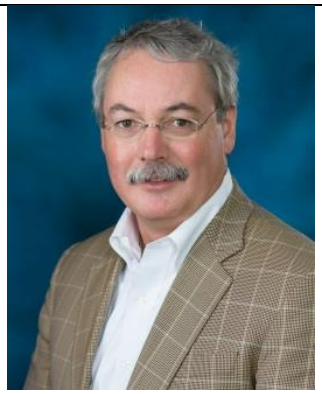
University of Alabama at Birmingham Quantitative CT biomarkers, imaging software development, and metastatic tumor response evaluation

andrewdennissmith@uabmc.edu



Bram Stolk, PhD, MBA
Academy Board Member/ Academy CIBR Industry Partner/ Workshop Facilitator

VP and GM Global Research Organization
GE Healthcare
Vice President and General Manager of the Global Research Organization, GE Healthcare

bram.stolk@ge.com

Karl Stupic, PhD

Research Chemist
National Institute of Standards and Technology Quantitative MRI and standards for MRI based biomarkers

karl.stupic@nist.gov

Emily Townley
Academy Staff

Executive Administrator & Operations Manager
The Academy for Radiology & Biomedical Imaging Research

etownley@acadrad.org

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018

Tim Trysla, JD

Partner
Alston & Bird

Health care attorney doing work for an imaging coalition

Tim.trysla@alston.com

Kenneth Wang, MD, PhD

Radiologist
Radiological Society of North America
Semantic technologies in imaging, including ontologies, coding systems and annotation.

kcwang@gmail.com

Alexander Weir, EngD, BEng (Hons)

Canon Medical
Leading development of medical diagnostic dashboard in clinical cockpit applications and CDs.

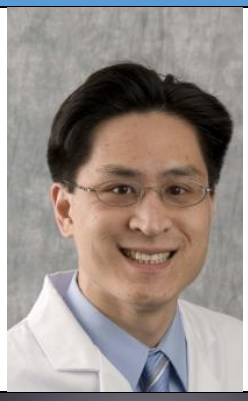
alexander.weir@eu.medical.canon

Pamela Woodard, MD
Academy Executive Committee

Sr. Vice Chair, Radiology Research Facilities
Washington University School of Medicine
Professor, Radiology and BME, Sr. Vice Chair, Radiology Research Facilities, Washington University

woodardp@wustl.edu

Academy NIST Workshop Attendee Directory
May 16-17, 2018



Robert Young, MD

Radiologist
Memorial Sloan Kettering
Neuroradiologist at NCI-designated cancer center.

youngrobert@gmail.com

Michael Zinchini

Sr. Director, Business Development
Konica Minolta Healthcare Americas
Commercialization of radiology imaging solutions. Strategic business planning michael.zinchini@konicaminolta.com
